Book Synopsis

Gulf War Nurses: Personal Accounts of 14 Americans, 1990-1991 and 2003-2010 Since the pioneering work of nineteenth-century nurses such as Florence Nightingale, Dorothea Dix and Clara Barton, professional nurses have been involved in caring for the sick and wounded in combat situations. This book contains the accounts of fourteen nurses who served in the U.S. military nurse corps during the Persian Gulf wars. These men and women describe how they found themselves serving Full description
